DC Co-lab

Community Platform

DC Co-Lab is our Community Collaboration and Data Initiatives, a platform that is of, by, with our community, empowering those who are relevant to have a seat at the table and for their voices to be heard. We facilitate committees to collaboratively center on equity while building a data-driven culture that helps further our reach and engagement to our primary audiences.

Community Collaboration

Committees for our Shared Mission:

- Equity and Justice Committee
- Education Programming Committee
- Data Committee
- Communication Committee

Data Initiatives

All current and future collective impact survey collections will live on the community platform where results that enhance strategic purposes will be visualized and shared.

DC Collaborative & Other Collaborators

We engage with relevant collaborators across the District for varied and creative ways to address our community's needs based on our shared mission.
