

DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative

collaborating for collective impact

Community Shared Mission

Advancing equitable access to the Arts and Humanities for DC public and public charter schools, serving students, teachers, administrators, and parents of public and public charter schools.

ADVANCING
EQUITABLE ACCESS TO
ARTS & HUMANITIES
EDUCATION
FOR DC PUBLIC AND PUBLIC
CHARTER SCHOOLS

DC Public School Audiences

- Students
- Teachers
- Administrators
- Parents and Families

DC Collaborative Services

DC Collaborative provides two major areas of services: Education Offerings that benefit students and teachers and Membership Services that support the arts and humanities community of practice to reach and engage with DC public schools.

Education Offerings

- Arts and Humanities for Every Student (AHFES)
- Distance Learning Resource Database (DLRD)
- School Partnership Pairing Program
- Teacher Professional Development
- Teaching Artist Fellowship

DC Collaborative Services

Membership Services for Program Providers

- Maximize reach and engagement of DC students
- Communications package
- Enhanced Networking
- Advocacy Initiatives

DC Co-lab Community Platform

DC Co-Lab is our Community Collaboration and Data Initiatives, a platform generated to empower those relevant in our community to have a seat and to be heard. In particular, we organize community committees to center equity, build a data-driven culture, and further reach and engagement of our District's public school students collaboratively.

Community Collaboration

Committees for our Shared Mission:

- Equity and Justice Committee
- Education Programming Committee
- Data Committee
- Communication Committee

Data Initiatives

All current and future collective impact survey collections will live on the community platform where results that enhance strategic purposes will be visualized.

DC Co-lab
Community Platform

DC Collaborative & Other Collaborators

We engage with collaborators across the District for varied and creative ways to address our community's needs and advance equitable access to arts and humanities learning opportunities.

Other Collaborators

Non-Member Organizations

- Other Community-based education program providers
- Advocacy affinity groups

Aligned Funders

- DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities
- Local Government grantors
- Private and Public Funders
- Sponsors